

Labor official, alderman in tiff over downtown plan

By Dave Gosnell
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Pressure to sign a petition to keep a downtown building from being included in the proposed downtown shopping center has been called political blackmail by an alderman.

Third Ward Alderman Paul Fisk said he was threatened not to be supported by a union organization in the next election if he didn't sign a petition to exclude the Labor Temple, 201 W. Madison, from being demolished in the downtown redevelopment program.

Fisk said Ed Reiske, president of the Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council, AFL-CIO and financial secretary of the Labor Temple Association, went to Schermer's Market in Madison, where Fisk works as a butcher, and told Fisk that if Fisk didn't sign the petition, the Labor Council would not support him in the next aldermanic election.

Bell, financial secretary of the Labor Council, said Thursday he spoke with Reiske after Fisk's statements to the City Council. Bell said Reiske denied pressuring the petition drive as being supported by the Labor Council.

"He (Fisk) got it all wrong. That's not what he (Reiske) says," said Bell, who is the financial secretary of the Labor Temple Association. Ed said to Mr. Fisk that he Reiske would do everything in his power to get him to sign to make sure Paul Fisk would not get labor's endorsement again if Fisk didn't sign the petition."

I find their tactics and their intent to be insulting and inflammatory to everyone.

Alderman Jim Miller

Bell said, "He (Reiske) had a handfull of petitions. It was to eliminate the building from the construction area. He presented this as a petition from the Tri-City Labor Council ... It's nothing more than an attempt to (politically) blackmail a person."

Fisk, who is a member of the butchers' union, said he refused the petition because he thought such exceptions would likely kill the project, which he supports.

He (Reiske) accused me of not being fair to labor. If we'll start getting our sacred cows in now, the whole project will be scrapped," Fisk said.

A proposal is being pursued by the city that would require the demolition of 10 downtown blocks to make way for a shopping center. City officials have said the project is likely to be built. Studies show that 300 full-time jobs would be created once the shopping center is built.

Fisk told the City Council on Tuesday that he was upset about the imminent and warned other aldermen that they may face similar pressures as a result of the project.

Second Ward Alderman Jim

Miller, chairman of the council's Downtown Rehabilitation Committee, said excluding the Labor Temple, which falls within the proposed project area, would stop the project. He said the shopping center boundaries were not "set in stone" and questioned why the Labor Council would jeopardize the current proposal.

I find their tactics and their intent to be insulting and inflammatory to everyone. They should have no problem relocating in another building downtown. Eventually when a labor group would be opposed to 300 full-time jobs is beyond me," Miller said.

Miller predicted there will be many such obstacles as the project continues.

It is the first flake in the snowstorm. Reiske said.

Repeated attempts to reach Reiske were unsuccessful.

Bell said neither the Labor Council nor the Labor Temple Association was against the downtown shopping center project. He said the Labor Temple is considered a landmark by local unions and many local union members want it preserved.

"We're not going to impede the progress of Granite City just for that building. We're not going to block anything. We may be forced to compromise," Bell said.

Bell said Mayor Von Dee Cruise addressed the Labor Council Dec. 2 and indicated that the project's boundaries could change.

Fisk said he would never again ask for support from the Labor Council and said he won his last re-election bid without it.

Man says police knew Arnett had gun

Innocent pleas for Gene H. Arnett, 29, Granite City, were entered Thursday in Madison County Circuit Court.

Arnett is accused of the Oct. 24 fatal highway shooting of Todd Scrum, 21, Granite City, and of attempted murder, armed violence and armed robbery in connection with the Nov. 19 shooting of Michael S. Gras, 29, Fairmont City, a station attendant at the Clark service station, Washington Avenue and Nameoki Road, Granite City.

James Arnett, 55, Godfrey, said Wednesday that he tried to tell Granite City police in early November that his shotgun was stolen by his son, Gene Arnett. He said he suspected his son was involved in the highway shootings.

Granite City Police Chief Robert Astorian said Wednesday there may have been confusion over the reports. He did not say prior to the Thursday hearing whether the shotgun was believed to be the weapon Gene Arnett allegedly used in the highway shooting.

At the hearing Thursday, it was stated that the 20-gauge shotgun shells used to shoot Scrum and Snodgrass were the kind stolen with the shotgun from James Arnett.

Possession of a firearm by Gene Arnett would violate terms of parole and Illinois law, which prohibits possession of firearms by convicted felons.

Gene Arnett was paroled in July after serving nine years on an 11-year prison sentence for two armed robberies in Wood River in 1978.

James Arnett said another of his sons, John Arnett, told Granite City police Nov. 4 that the shotgun was stolen, but an officer refused to take the report. The officer allegedly would not take the report because it was not being filed by the shotgun's owner, James Arnett.

James Arnett said that Nov. 5 he went to Development authority to start work next year

SPRINGFIELD — Although Gov. James Thompson signed the legislation creating the Southwestern Illinois Development Authority more than two months ago, it probably won't begin operating until next year.

Jim Bray, the governor's deputy press secretary, said Nov. 30 the appointments for the authority governing board were not expected to be announced until after the end of the year.

"A lot of different people are making recommendations and we need to get information on each one of them before the governor decides," Bray said.

The governor makes six of the appointments to the board. An additional two each are made by the Madison and St. Clair county board chairmen.

Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer said he had notified the governor's office of his two appointments more than three weeks ago. They are Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville President Earl Lazerson and Robert Lomax, who also chairs the small business committee of the Granite City Chamber of Commerce. St. Clair County Board Chairman Jerry Costello has not yet made his appointment.

The governor prominently urged creation of the authority as a catalyst for economic development in the two counties during his "State of the State" speech in February.

The legislation sponsored by Rep. Jim McPike, D-Alton, gives the authority power to issue revenue bonds backed by the state for a wide variety of industrial, commercial and recreational projects in the two counties. It does not have direct taxing powers, however.

Activities being planned by Coolidge-Student Council

GRANITE CITY — The Coolidge Junior High School Student Council will sponsor a holiday gift shop at the school on Dec. 10 and 11.

The gift shop will be located in the cafeteria during lunch hours and after school until 4 p.m.

After the students have finished eating lunch, they will be permitted to buy available items. They can also purchase items following school.

There will be 57 different items for sale, ranging in price from $1 to $10. Forty of these items will be priced at $2 or less.

Some of the items that will be available include jack and ball sets, football banks, coupon savers, hurricane candles, floating magnetic pens, four-piece oven mitten sets, musical note mugs, sun-dried toy dogs, remote control toy jeeps, toy antique classic auto and dove music boxes.

The purpose of the project is to provide Coolidge students an opportunity to purchase inexpensive Christmas gift items.

The week of Dec. 14-18, the Coolidge Student Council will collect canned goods and nonperishable food items for Christmas boxes to be given to needy families in the community. The group will also collect money during that week for the school's annual Christmas bazaar.

The Student Council will host a faculty breakfast Dec. 18 at 7:15 a.m. in the cafeteria in recognition of teacher appreciation day.

Center holds blood drive on Dec. 17

The American Red Cross must collect 1,000 units of blood each day to serve the needs of all hospitals in 83 Missouri and Illinois counties, said Ruth Gabriel, chairperson of a coming Red Cross Blood Drive.

The blood drive, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Medical Center, 2106 Madison Ave., Granite City, will be held Thursday, Dec. 17, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"Your donation really can save a life," Gabriel said. "And it usually takes less than an hour to give."

Gabriel said someone, somewhere, needs blood every 10 seconds and there is a great need for blood donors to keep up with the demand.

To be eligible, donors must be at least 17 years of age in good health and weigh more than 100 pounds.

For more information about the drive, call 798-3128.

Area Council PTA holds craft show

The Area Council PTA is sponsoring a holiday gift show Saturday, Dec. 12, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Delmar Civic Township Hall, 2060 Delmar Ave. The public is invited.

Shoppers will be able to select from more than 100 booths and more than 50 different booths and local craft makers will have an opportunity to display their talents, organizers said.

The Area Council PTA earns funds to be used to benefit schools throughout the community. The PTA projects include scholarships, cultural arts recognitions, excellence in writing incentives, parenting workshops and special projects such as the recent Class of 2000 celebration.

Bi-State Development Agency buys 57 buses

The Bi-State Development Agency Board of Commissioners agreed to buy 57 buses for up to $9.5 million, board Chairman C. Wayne Spann said Dec. 1.

The contract was awarded to the Flxible Corp., which was the lowest bidder, Spann said.

The buses will be equipped with wheelchair lifts and should arrive in St. Louis in late spring or early summer. At the same time, 40 new commuter buses should arrive for use on long express route service.

Raleigh D'Adamo, Bi-State executive director, said, "By summer, we will have replaced about one-sixth of our park bus fleet with new, more comfortable vehicles that will provide our passengers with better service and more reliable drivers with a competitive alternative."

The award to Flxible includes an option to purchase 40 to 60 additional buses at a future date. The board voted unanimously that if this option is exercised, these buses will also have wheelchair lifts.

BPW holds back care talk

On Nov. 18, prior to its regular monthly meeting, the Granite City BPW participated in a "mini-workshop" on proper care of the back.

The workshop was conducted by Jackie Haug and Rose Bruemmer, both from the St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Physical Therapy Department.

The physical center's new back care program focuses on the management and prevention of back injuries. It was taught by a registered physical therapist, and includes a review of the anatomy, posture, body mechanics and procedures for lifting.

During the class, participants learned "hands-on" lifting techniques and how to incorporate them into their work and everyday lives. This method may help participants to remember the lifting techniques and to use them as a matter of habit. Participants in the back care program must have a physician referral.

For more information on the program, call 798-3135.

Police, court news

Police car for chief on hold

By Valerie Ewenden

Staff writer

PONTOON BEACH — Police Chief Tom Ballew must continue to wait before learning whether he will get a different car. He shares the department's administrative car with Detective Sgt. Michael Madison.

The additional car being sought for the department is a 1984 model which also could double as a surveillance vehicle. The car is needed.

Ballew and Crouch jointly use an unmarked Dodge.

The vehicle is in disrepair, said Trustee Don Rea when the Nov. 11 meeting. Discussion about the auto continued at the trustee's Nov. 24 session.

The Dodge isn't safe to drive out of town, either to Edwardsville or Granite City, Rea said. Estimated cost of repairing the vehicle was $1,325.

Trustee Louis Whitsell questioned what happened to the three 1984 Impalas purchased for the department earlier this year. Crouch said the cars are being utilized and all are well maintained by the individual officers, reflected in reduced maintenance costs. Several men have spent their own money to put special equipment in the vehicles, the sergeant said.

Ballew also reported to the board that Crouch has accumulated over 1,000 hours during the investigation of the auto's manner and has not requested overtime pay, which amounts to about $1,200.

A question of whether or not purchase of a used vehicle can be justified without a new one admitted was raised. Attorney Keith Jensen said he believes a three-fifths majority vote would be necessary to waive seeking bids.

Six trustees and Mayor Glen Wilson constitute the village board. Trustee Loren Madison and the mayor were working the night of Nov. 11 and were unable to attend.

Michael J. Kane, 49, Wood River, was injured when his car stopped for a red light on Illinois 111 at State Aid 35 and was struck from the rear by another vehicle at 10:53 a.m., Nov. 24. The impact pushed the Kane auto across the intersection.

Theodore C. Jensen, 67, 2121 Clinton, who drives the second car, said he applied the brakes but continue to slide on the wet pavement. He was injured and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Waiving the bidding procedure to purchase the unmarked vehicle and the number of votes necessary resurfaced at the Nov. 24 board session when Trustees Abel Boy Vincent, Rea and Carl Hedges voted "yes" and Trustees Loren Madison and Whitsell voted "no."

Jensen said statutes appeared contradictory on whether three-fifths or two-thirds of the board must agree to approve such an action.村 ordinance calls for a two-thirds majority, while a state statute lists three-fifths votes to approve such matters. The attorney asked for further time to explore the question before giving a ruling.

Several bids were opened for police vehicle repair and general maintenance, gasoline purchase and servicing.

Questions again were raised by Madison, Abel and Rea concerning the tax-free status, which was not mentioned in the gasoline bids, plus the quality of mechanical work being offered and the hours that service would be available.

All bids were referred to the Police Committee for evaluation.

"Thus we need to fully fund both remediation and prevention programs ..."

State funding priorities for at-risk youth should specify early identification and referral of children, in preference to remedial efforts, Coffman said.

"I don't think you can say 'either/or' there has to be a balanced effort. If we say we are not going to commit to remediation, that writes off a whole generation of kids. Many of them will remain unemployed, which affects the economy long into the future," Coffman said.

"Thus we need to fully fund both remediation and prevention programs for those at risk of dropping out," he said.

Coffman described optional education programs that have proven effective for truancy prevention. Such programs were begun in 1986 under reform plans for schools adopted by the legislature.

"These programs are succeeding because they were involved in the development of their communities to design and implement them, and therefore they are based on local conditions and needs," Coffman said.

Unfortunately, finding individuals who are willing to build a professional network, and difficult to evaluate programs from a statewide perspective, he said.

"Illinois' successful dropout prevention programs are similar to those recommended by the Committee for Economic Development, a nonprofit organization whose members are mostly business executives and university presidents. The report said there has been "little or no improvement in the dropout rate in the past few years" nationally.

Astorian confirmed that John Arnett had talked with police about the theft and was advised to have James Arnett file the report.

"He (John Arnett) had very little information," Astorian said. "His information was very vague."

Astorian said he thinks there "may be a mix-up" referred to the other report. Officers may have believed the theft occurred in the sheriff's department jurisdiction.

"I'm trying to find out what happened," Astorian said. "If anything, I think it was a misunderstanding—or miscommunication. It's sad because we have worked so hard on this investigation."

it. I did talk to Mr. Arnett, and got his story.... I tried to find out, who talked to who?"

Astorian said there was a shift change between the time when John Arnett was at the Police Department and James Arnett was at the department. He said officers apparently were unclear why James Arnett, from Godfrey, was reporting a theft to Granite City police.

"I don't want to make any excuses for anybody. There was a lack of communication between where he lived and where the gun was stolen from," Astorian said. "I would have hoped that any officer would have listened more closely and entered some type of report on it."

Astorian said the number of stolen weapons in Granite City did not make the theft of a shotgun stand out.

"At that time, we really had no suspect, we were working on," Astorian said. "We had other shotguns stolen within that time frame.... We had like 22 weapons stolen last month."

Briggs voices concern about railroad cars

By Bill Bagby

Staff writer

NAMEOKI — Concern about speeding railroad cars carrying toxic materials is being expressed by Nameoki Township Supervisor Harry Briggs Sr.

In a letter to state Sen. Sam Van Vickle, D-Edwardsville, Briggs said Alton and Southern railroads cause some brick homes to vibrate on Country Lane Court and Whippoorwill Lakes, both in Nameoki. Briggs said he is concerned about possible vibration damage to their homes.

Briggs was told by officials of the railroads that they travel north and south through the township, the Illinois Commerce Commission has ruled that the trains can't exceed 20 mph when they cross Pontoon Road heading south, he said. After they cross the road, they can increase their speed—causing the homes to shake, he said.

Briggs said that an Alton and Southern official, who works at the company's East St. Louis office, told him that some of the railroad cars carry hazardous and toxic materials.

Briggs said he heard the ICC proposed the ICC to lower the speed limit until the train passes the Steekest Subdivision.

He also asked that members of the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department be made aware of the type of hazardous and toxic materials being transported in the railroad cars.

"That way the firemen could be trained to handle any emergency that may arise," Briggs wrote.

Devils' margin over Worden eighth largest ever in Illinois

By Dave Whaley
Executive sports editor

VENICE — It was David vs. Goliath to the nth degree. It was like the 1973 Pittsburgh Steelers vs. the 1976 New England Patriots. It was like a band competition between Granny's Washboard Band and the Beatles.

No amount of camouflage can hide the fact that the Venice Red Devils handed the hapless Worden Trojans a good, old-fashioned whipping.

The score on Thursday at the Venice High School gym was 121-18, and it might as well have been as close as the score would indicate. The Red Devil fans had a good time watching their defending state champs in their home opener. A couple of ladies seated behind the scorer's table really got emotional, getting into a fracas in the second quarter.

"The draw left the Warriors with a 2-1 record going into Saturday's quad meet at Bloomington Prairie Central, Pekin and Bloomington joined Granite City in the match.

Complete results from the Bloomington meet will be in Wednesday's Journal.

Parochial schools, Bo don't deserve critics

Some things in life just don't seem fair. But that's just the way it is.

There are some complainers prowling around these days beating their chests about the plight of some of football's "have-nots" and "have-nots." There are two examples of this they are pointing to in the wake of some happenings in the past week.

Item 1: You probably heard five of the six Illinois high school football championships were won by parochial schools. Arlington Heights, Hersey, which defeated East St. Louis in the Class 6A final, was the only public school to win.

In the other five classes, a parochial school beat a public school. That's it. That has stirred the hearts of those not aligned with parochial schools.

"They have an unfair advantage," is the typical cry of family and administrators at public schools. "They can recruit from wherever they want and can load up with the best players from a wide area."

Well, it certainly worked out for them this year. Some parochial schools undoubtedly get into the "recruiting" business more than others. They will EDGAR WILSON of the SIUE Cougars goes up for two of his 14 points in the Cougars' 105-65 win over Monmouth at the Vandalia Center on Thursday. Wilson is averaging 18.8 points per game as SIUE is off to a 2-2 start.

Warriors open home season with win

By Gary King
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — It wasn't anything he could point his finger at, but something about Don Deterding's 399th career coaching win that just didn't seem right.

True, the Warriors did end up on the right side of a 48-46 decision against the Triad Knights in their home opener. And, yes, the win did put Deterding one step closer to the majestic 400-win plateau.

But to Deterding, the win was like a three-legged Clydesdale.

"It sure wasn't a pretty win," Deterding said. "I guess I ought to be more happy about it, but we just have so much to work on."

"We're simply not accustomed to winning, and we have little experience on the team," Deterding said. "The combination of those two factors seems to really baffle us."

A pessimist? No, Deterding was just describing his Warriors' growing pains. And, he said, he can't help but be concerned about the plight of his young squad. Deterding knows the best cure for growing pains is talismans in the win column.

So far, all he's got is Friday night's win over Triad (0-4) was still perfect medicine for Granite City (2-3).

The Warriors jumped out to a 17-7 lead in the opening minutes of the game, behind two three-point shots from junior Mike A. Wilkinson and a seven-point spurt by center Kevin Sanders and never were headed the rest of the way.

But that's not to say Granite City exactly had a quick start of the Knights either.

After their quick jump out of the gate, the Warriors watched Triad nip at their heels for the remainder of the evening. The highlight behind the strong inside play of center Dave Krause, kept pace with Granite City and trailed by only two, 35-33, at the half-time intermission.

The cat-and-mouseery continued until the final minute of the third period, when the junior Wilkinson and Sanders connected on back-to-back three-pointers to help the Warriors open a 48-41 edge after three quarters.

The Knights saw their fate sealed when Kruse was swatted for a foul with 1:45 left in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter.

With the 15-point inside man on the bench, Triad's offensive attack was suddenly just a boat with no oars.

"We like to make people honor us outside, but we're basically an inside team," Knight coach Mike A. Wilkinson said.

Rich Mason said: "We're not a real good outside shooting team, so losing Kruse did hurt us."

The Knights' loss was the Warriors' gain.

The same game just ate us up in the first half," Deterding said. "But then we played some good defense in the second half and we shut them down pretty well."

The Warriors also kept the Triad defense off balance by mixing up the offensive scheme.

"When the Knight defense comes at you with one scheme all the time, the game, the junior Wilkinson and sophomore point guard John Van Buskirk fired from the outer perimeter. Vice versa for Sanders, who on the outside, game began to draw attention."

The result was 19 points apiece for Sanders and Wilkinson, and nine points and four assists for Van Buskirk.

The Knights were led by Kruse's 15 points and a 12-point contribution from Keith Bridges.

Deterding also benefited from the solid bench play of Mark Miller, Mike Kory, Ray Burton, who each finished with six points. Burton, a defensive specialist, scored a big basket to break the game open for the Warriors.

"Our bench played well tonight," Deterding said. "Kory came in and gave us good defense and some rebounding. You're always looking to get the win above all else. We do still have a long way to go and there are things we have to make work for us like our defense. We're not perfect, we're just going to have to gain experience and see who can play when for us."

"Right now, I think we're showing a lot of the characteristics of a team that's groping to find itself."

fourth quarter. You don't want to run it up on them, but you can't tell your reserve players not to play hard. And it was just our second game so I wanted to see our seniors execute."

The Devils and the Trojans were executed. Worden has lost 125 of his last 128 varsity games covering six years. Steve Ondes, beginning his 10th year as coach, has a 1.67 record.

Worden is trying to merge into the Edwardsville school district. Currently a member of the Illinois-Gateway Conference, the Trojans have played the Devil's since 1981 and the results are never pretty. Last year's scores were 19-0 and 123-46. There is no reason the Trojans have to be beaten.

"Actually, we didn't play real good defense in the first half," Harris said. "It was all offense and no defense, but we played harder on defense in the second half."

The defense was especially weak in the second quarter when Worden exploded for eight points. They had three in the first, three in the third and four in the fourth. The Devils, meanwhile, scored 42 points in the fourth quarter (the sixth highest total in history) and 74 points in the second half (fourth in state history).

Everyone on the Devil varsity scored. Daryl Jackson led the way with 24 points and Dan Turner added 10 to go with 12 assists and six steals including a pair of behind-the-back passes as he was lunging out of bounds to save the ball for a wide-open shot. Jason Stoen for award-winner Willie Hollis came off the bench to get 18 points and 13 rebounds.

Hollis did a very good job off the bench with his rebounding," Harris said. "I think the players wanted to come out and get a win under their belts after Tuesday's 76-56 loss at East St. Louis Lincoln. They knew they didn't do well then."

"I don't think we were overwhelmed. Maybe a little. If we played Lincoln in January it would be a much better game. I would like to schedule them for later in the season next year. We will keep playing them because, that's the only way our players will learn."

They can certainly learn more against Lincoln than against Worden. The only thing they learned on Thursday was how easily they can shoot 58 of 82 (71 percent). From the foul line, including free throws (70 percent), the fourth quarter, Turner sank a pair of three-pointers in the game while Derek Wise and Carlos Briggs had one each.

NOTES: The Trojans were 7 of 46 (15 percent) from the field and an incredible 3 of 23 (13 percent) from the foul line. It was 100 below zero degrees when Worden got their first field goal with 19 seconds left in the first quarter...Briggs' layup with 4:37 left put the Devils over the century mark at 114-104 and Lyons' bullet with 46 seconds left brought the point differential over 100...After one game in which they were overwhelmed and one in which they overwhelmed the opposition, the Devils will try to start playing some normal games when they host Lebanon on Tuesday...Briggs is the only junior in the league to make famous the last four years at Venice by Jesse Hall. "We don't have the money to buy new jerseys," Harris said of a decision not to retire the number.

everybody in 1984 when the Pioneers went 3-6.

Nobody cares enough about you when you're down to criticize.

I did not attend a parochial school. I attended Marion Catholic High School which frequently finds itself losing students to Marquette. But that's just the way it is. When it comes right down to it, parochial schools are still won on the field.

It's Bo Jackson ran wild in the Los Angeles Raiders' win over the Seattle Seahawks on Monday Night Football.

Bo has played quite proficiently at his latest hobby. But some people are lamenting the fact players like Jackson can be drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, refuse to sign, wait a year and then sign with the Raiders.

It's not fair for the weak teams to let the good players like that the people say. Bo shouldn't be allowed to just wait a while and then be free to sign with the Raiders.

Wait a minute. As glamorous as it may seem, the Raiders are only 4-7 this year. Who's to say they're much better than the Buccaneers? And wouldn't you rather have the team come to you for long-term success than for futility?

A prospective employee should be free to choose. That's why the college draft was born on them.

Again, just like in the case of the parochial schools, neither the Raiders nor any other "winning" organization is unbeatable. The Canadians, Celts and Raiders don't win every year. Far from it.

Things might not always look completely fair. But things have a way of working out. After all, Bo Jackson played for a public, not parochial, high school.

K mart to help children

K mart's 2,100 stores nationwide will open their doors early Saturday, Dec. 12, for their third annual Christmas shopping spree for local underprivileged children.

At 8 a.m., needy children will take to the aisles of K mart stores across the country and spend over $840,000 on gifts for their families, friends and them-selves.

Each child will be able to pick out $20 worth of merchandise of their choice. In addition, children will be treated to breakfast and a gift-wrapped present from Santa.

K mart employees, who volunteered their early morning time, will assist the kids with gift selection and staying within their budget.

Locally, each K mart store will sponsor 20 needy children. Additional children may be sponsored by community organizations.

According to K mart Chairman Joseph E. Antonini, holding this special shopping spree for the third year is rewarding for all parts involved.

"Our K mart associates thoroughly enjoy this program. Many of our children have purchased gifts for their moms, dads, grandparents, brothers and sisters," Antonini said. "We're not just giving the children a holiday to remember; we're teaching them about caring and sharing."

K mart Good News Committees, organized by employees in each store, are actively involved in year-round outreach programs in communities near their K mart stores.

K mart Corp. posted 1986 sales of $23.8 billion and operates nearly 4,000 retail outlets in all 50 states, the U.S., Puerto Rico and Canada.

This year, K mart celebrates 25 years of service to the millions of customers who have made it "America's Favorite Store."
